

From: Cases in the News at kkcomcon.com

MAN BUSTED FOR STRIP CLUB DANCE FLOOR MURDER

Dateline ..Canoga Park ... Los Angeles ...

Cops took a down a 20 year old man who slit the throat of a strip club customer while he chatted with one of the clubs dancing girls.

The scene of the crime was the Exposed Strip Club which is located on the 8200 block of Canoga Avenue. Cops were summoned to the establishment on Monday around 8:30 p.m., and found a local patron on the floor bleeding to death.

Jose Omar Montalvo who is from nearby Northridge was rushed to Northridge Hospital Medical Center, but doctors were unable to save his life..

An inside sources claims Jose was sitting in a chair while chatting with a young lady employed by the club, when suddenly a man who was later identified as Zackary Balonick , who was seated behind Jose , suddenly jumped from his chair , pulled out a knife and slit Mantalvo's throat. Cops and club goers said they could think of no reason for the heinous act.

Mr Bolonick then calmly exited the club got into a new silver colored Audi and drove away.

Police searching the area found the car parked in front of a home on the 17300 block of Quesan Place in nearby Encino which is an upscale area near Canoga Park.

Zachary Todd Balonick was then identified as the culprit by club patrons and taken into custody by the LAPD's by detectives working out of the West Valley Division.

Mr. Balonick is being held wit out bail pending arraignment.